

RVW2/3/206 William And Mary

Mr. Bell, 16 February 1906, Herongate.

(Editorial suggestion) ♩=120

As Wil - liam and Mar - y stood by the sea side, their last fare - well for to take. Said

6

(a)

10 Mar - y to Wil - liam, Oh will you re - turn? Or I'm sure that my heart it will break.

15 (a) var.

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The tempo is marked as ♩=120. The lyrics are: 'As Wil - liam and Mar - y stood by the sea side, their last fare - well for to take. Said Mar - y to Wil - liam, Oh will you re - turn? Or I'm sure that my heart it will break.' There are performance markings: '(a)' above the second staff and '(a) var.' above the fourth staff. The score ends with a double bar line.